

You're invited to "talk radio" at a

VINTAGE RADIO DISPLAY and AUTHOR EVENT

Join RADIO STARR author Lisa Lehmann
Thursday, April 30 from 6-7pm
Manitowoc Public Library, 707 Quay Street

The author, a former DJ, will share how the novel came about, from research and writing to publication. The story is set in 1980s and takes readers to small town stations across Wisconsin.

"It's a love letter to the old days of carts and typewritten copy, skipping records and overnights."

A rare collection of radios spanning sixty years of history from 1924 to 1983 will be on display in honor of radio station WOMT's 100th anniversary celebration from April 20-May 30.

Books will be available for purchase.
The novel is available at both online retailers
such as amazon and local bookstores.

radiobook@lisalehmann.com ~ (920) 912-8691